COMMENTS:

What has given you the most satisfaction as a member of the CIG?

Non-confrontational tone of discussions.

Strong agendas that keep meetings on track.

Early evening meeting time.

The hope that as a group we will get some progress in the community.

Being done on time.

Feeling that I can help with village concerns.

Open discussion.

Immediate feedback, personal options, input from community, ability to explain stats, process, decisions, future activities.

Being part of the community involvement process that is so important to Middleport.

What has been the most frustrating for you as a member of the CIG?

The feeling of hitting a brick wall with some of the agencies.

Agency response.

Agency response.

Minimal input by the agencies and then it tends to be negative.
